I've collected these quotes over the last 25 years and they have had a big part of shaping my personal "world view". The wisdom of those who've gone before us is essential to the development of our puny little minds and without knowing or caring about what others have said we can so easily become pawns of extremists.

Loyalty to the country always. Loyalty to the government when it deserves it. ~~ Mark Twain

"What we do for ourselves dies with us. What we do for others and the world remains and is immortal." ~~ Albert Pine

"Twenty years from now you will be more disappointed by the things that you didn't do than by the ones you did do. So throw off the bowlines. Sail away from the safe harbor. Catch the trade winds in your sails. Explore. Dream. Discover." ~~ Mark Twain

"A society of sheep must in time beget a government of wolves." ~~ Bertrand de Jouvenal

"A Conservative government is an organized hypocrisy." ~~ Benjamin Disraeli

"Whenever you have an efficient government you have a dictatorship." ~~ Harry S Truman

"If our democracy is to flourish, it must have criticism; if our government is to function it must have dissent." ~~ Henry Commager

"Those who make peaceful revolution impossible will make violent revolution inevitable." ~~ John F. Kennedy

"I believe that banking institutions are more dangerous to our liberties than standing armies." ~~ Thomas Jefferson

"I like to believe that people in the long run are going to do more to promote peace than our governments. Indeed, I think that people want peace so much that one of these days governments had better get out of the way and let them have it." ~~ Dwight D. Eisenhower

"The spirit of resistance to government is so valuable on certain occasions, that I wish it always to be kept alive." ~~ Thomas Jefferson

"I would rather be exposed to the inconveniences attending too much liberty than to those attending too small a degree of it." ~~ Thomas Jefferson

"It doesn't matter who casts the votes, what matters is who counts them." ~~ Josef Stalin

"I like to believe that people in the long run are going to do more to promote peace than our governments. Indeed, I think that people want peace so much that one of these days governments had better get out of the way and let them have it." ~~ Dwight D. Eisenhower

"Don't join the book burners. Don't think you're going to conceal faults by concealing evidence that they ever existed. Don't be afraid to go in your library and read every book..." ~~ Dwight D. Eisenhower

"What counts is not necessarily the size of the dog in the fight - it's the size of the fight in the dog." ~~ Dwight D. Eisenhower

"Every gun that is made, every warship launched, every rocket fired signifies, in the final sense, a theft from those who hunger and are not fed, those who are cold and not clothed. This world in arms is not spending money alone. It is spending the sweat of its laborers, the genius of its scientists, the hopes of its children. This is not a way of life at all in any true sense. Under the cloud of threatening war, it is humanity hanging from a cross of iron." ~~ Dwight D. Eisenhower

"You do not lead by hitting people over the head-that's assault, not leadership." ~~ Dwight D. Eisenhower

Sheldon's Book of Quotes

"We merely want to live in peace with all the world, to trade with them, to commune with them, to learn from their culture as they may learn from ours, so that the products of our toil may be used for our schools and our roads and our churches and not for guns and planes and tanks and ships of war." ~~ Dwight D. Eisenhower

"You cannot win a War on Terrorism. It's like having a war on jealousy." ~~ David Cross

"I hate war as only a soldier who has lived it can, only as one who has seen its brutality, its futility, its stupidity." ~~ Dwight D. Eisenhower

"How far can you go without destroying from within what you are trying to defend from without?" ~~ Dwight D. Eisenhower

"A Patriot must always be ready to defend his country against his government." ~~ Ed Abbey

"The old lady said she'd leave me if I bought another bike.
I still sometimes wonder what she's doing these days." ~~ Anonymous

"First they came for the Jews
and I did not speak out because I was not a Jew.
Then they came for the Communists
and I did not speak out because I was not a Communist.
Then they came for the trade unionists
and I did not speak out
because I was not a trade unionist.
Then they came for me and there was no one left to speak out for me".

~~ Pastor Martin Niemöller – Germany 1946

"To lay one's plans carefully, to wreak an implacable vengeance, and then to go to sleep, there is nothing sweeter in the world" ~~ Josef Stalin

"A little rebellion now and then... is a medicine necessary for the sound health of government." ~~ Thomas Jefferson

"Government's view of the economy could be summed up in a few short phrases: If it moves, tax it. If it keeps moving, regulate it. And if it stops moving, subsidize it." ~~ Ronald Reagan

"The snow doesn't give a soft white damn whom it touches." -- E(dward) E(stlin) Cummings

"There's simply no two ways about this fuel question. Gasoline is going – alcohol is coming. And we might as well get ready for it now. All the world is waiting for a substitute for gasoline." ~~ Henry Ford, in an interview with The Detroit Free Press, December 1916

"The price of apathy towards public affairs is to be ruled by evil men." ~~ Plato

"...those who propose such a thing (violating citizen privacy through illegal wiretaps) are more of a danger to the country than the ones they want to listen in on." ~~ Harry Truman

"The greatest danger for most of us is not that our aim is too high and we miss it, but that it is too low and we reach it." ~~ Michelangelo

"The erosion of freedom rarely comes as an all-out frontal assault. Rather, it is a gradual, noxious creeping cloaked in secrecy and glossed over by reassurances of greater security." ~~ Senator Robert C. Byrd

Sheldon's Book of Quotes

"What luck for rulers that men do not think." ~~ Adolf Hitler

"The great masses of the people... will more easily fall victims to a great lie than to a small one." ~~ Adolf Hitler

"I use emotion for the many and reserve reason for the few." ~~ Adolf Hitler

"By means of shrewd lies, unremittingly repeated, it is possible to make people believe that heaven is hell – and hell is heaven. The greater the lie, the more readily it will be believed." ~ Adolf Hitler

"Naturally, the common people don't want war, but after all, it is the leaders of a country who determine the policy, and it is always a simple matter to drag people along whether it is a democracy, or a fascist dictatorship, or a parliament, or a communist dictatorship. Voice or no voice, the people can always be brought to the bidding of the leaders. This is easy. All you have to do is tell them they are being attacked, and denounce the pacifists for lack of patriotism and exposing the country to danger. It works the same in every country." ~~ Herman Goering

"Never eat more than you can lift." ~~ Miss Piggy

"If government were a product, selling it would be illegal." ~~ P. J. O'Rourke

"With or without religion, you would have good people doing good things and evil people doing evil things. But for good people to do evil things, that takes religion." ~~ Steven Weinberg

"An idealist is a person who helps other people to be prosperous." ~~ Henry Ford

"No one knows what it is that he can do till he tries." ~~ Publius Syrus

"I never hurt nobody but myself and that's nobody's business but my own." ~~ Billie Holiday

"The man of character, in relation to his superiors, finds himself in a difficult position. Sure of his own judgment and conscious of his strengths, he makes no concessions to the desire to please. More than that, those who do great things must often ignore the conventions of a false discipline." ~~ Charles DeGaulle

"Natural abilities are like natural plants; they need pruning by study." ~~ Francis Bacon

"It rankles me when somebody tries to force somebody to do something." ~~ John Wayne

"Authors, like coins, grow dear as they grow old: It is the rust we value, not the gold." ~~ Alexander Pope

"Everything used in this book is from public sources. The stuff that's available publicly is far more frightening than a lot of people realize." ~~ Tom Clancy

"I was in prison and you came to visit me." ~~ Jesus of Nazareth (Matthew 25:36)

"Perhaps the sentiments contained in the following pages, are not yet sufficiently fashionable to procure them general favor; a long habit of not thinking a thing wrong, gives it a superficial appearance of being right, and raises at first a formidable outcry in defense of custom. But the tumult soon subsides." ~~ Thomas Paine (Common Sense, Jan 1776)

"The author who speaks about his own books is almost as bad as a mother who talks about her own children." ~~ Benjamin Disraeli

"Why doesn't everybody leave everybody else the hell alone?" ~~ Jimmy Durante

"No loss by flood or lightning, no destruction of cities and temples by hostile forces of nature, has deprived man of so many noble lives and impulses as those which his intolerance has destroyed." ~~ Helen Keller

"They can because they think they can." ~~ Vergil

Sheldon's Book of Quotes

"That which we call sin in others is experiment for us." ~~ Ralph Waldo Emerson

"Enlighten the people generally, and tyranny and oppressions of body and mind will vanish like evil spirits at the dawn of day." ~~ Thomas Jefferson

"It has been my experience that folks who have no vices have very few virtues." ~~ Abraham Lincoln

"Absence makes the heart grow fonder." ~~ Thomas Haynes Bayly

"My definition of a free society is a society where it is safe to be unpopular." ~~ Adlai E. Stevenson

"The government of the United States is not, in any sense, founded on the Christian religion." ~~ George Washington (1796)

"If we've learned anything in the past quarter century, it is that we cannot federalize virtue." ~~ President George Bush 1991

"Fools admire, but men of sense approve." ~~ Alexander Pope

"We are so concerned to flatter the majority that we lose sight of how very often it is necessary, in order to preserve freedom for the minority, let alone for the individual, to face that majority down." ~~ William F. Buckley, Jr.

"A fool always finds a greater fool to admire him." ~~ Nicholas Boileau

"All men are frauds. The only difference between them is that some admit it. I myself deny it." ~~ H. L. Mencken

"The first thing to learn in intercourse with others is non-interference with their own particular ways of being happy, provided those ways do not assume to interfere by violence with ours." ~~ William James

"Truth resides in every human heart, and one has to search for it there, and to be guided by truth as one sees it. But no one has a right to coerce others to act according to his own view of truth." ~~ Mohandas K. Gandhi

"Resort to military force is a first sure sign that we are giving up the struggle for the democratic way of life, and that the Old World has conquered morally as well as geographically ~~ succeeding in imposing upon us its ideals and methods." ~~ John Dewey (1939)

"The worst men give oft the best advice." ~~ Philip James Bailey

"Nobody can be so amusingly arrogant as a young man who has just discovered an old idea and thinks it is his own." ~~ Sydney J. Harris

"A wise and frugal Government, which shall restrain men from injuring one another, shall leave them otherwise free to regulate their own pursuits of industry and improvement." ~~ Thomas Jefferson (1801)

"Freedom is the right to choose: the right to create for oneself the alternatives of choice. Without the possibility of choice a man is not a man but a member, and instrument, a thing." ~~ Archibald MacCleish

"A civilized society is one which tolerates eccentricity to the point of doubtful sanity." ~~ Robert Frost

"Liberty exists in proportion to wholesome restraint; the more restraint on others to keep off from us, the more liberty we have." ~~ Daniel Webster (1847)

"Every man desires to live long, but no man would be old." ~~ Johnathan Swift

"The United States ranks 13th on the Human Freedom Index. Twelve other countries are freer than the United States." ~~ United Nations

Sheldon's Book of Quotes

"Do what's right for you, as long as it don't hurt no one." ~~ Elvis Presley

"In framing a government, which is to be administered by men over men, the great difficulty lies in this: you must first enable the government to control the governed, and in the next place, oblige it to control itself." ~~ James Madison

"Liberty is the only thing you cannot have unless you are willing to give it to others." ~~ William Allen White

"Life is a sexually transmitted terminal disease." ~~ Peter McWilliams

"Whether or not legislation is truly moral is often a question of who has the power to define morality." ~~ Jerome H. Skolnick

"In a free society, standards of public morality can be measured only by whether physical coercion ~~ violence against persons or property ~~ occurs. There is no right not to be offended by words, actions or symbols." ~~ Richard E. Sincere, Jr.

"Moral indignation is in most cases 2% moral, 48% indignation and 50% envy. ~~ Vittorio De Sica

"Give me chastity and self-restraint, but do not give it yet." ~~ Saint Augustine

"Without doubt the greatest injury of all was done by basing morals on myth. For, sooner or later, myth is recognized for what it is, and disappears. Then morality loses the foundation on which it has been built." ~~ Lord Herbert Louis Samuel

"My people and I have come to an agreement which satisfies us both. They are to say what they please, and I am to do what I please." ~~ Frederick the Great (1712-1786)

"I have never been able to conceive how any rational being could propose happiness to himself from the exercise of power over others." ~~ Thomas Jefferson

"It is not only vain, but wicked, in a legislator to frame laws in opposition to the laws of nature, and to arm them with the terrors of death. This is truly creating crimes in order to punish them." ~~ Thomas Jefferson (1779)

"Every tyrant who has lived has believed in freedom ~~ for himself." ~~ Elbert Hubbard

"Civil laws against adultery and fornication have been on the books forever, in every country. That's not the law's business; that's God's business. He can handle it." ~~ Justice Thomas G. Kavanagh

"Republic. I like the sound of the word. It means people can live free, talk free, go or come, buy or sell, be drunk or sober, however they choose." ~~ John Wayne

"We are all tolerant enough of those who do not agree with us, provided only they are sufficiently miserable." ~~ David Grayson

"Youth is a blunder, manhood a struggle; old age a regret." ~~ Benjamin Disraeli

"I hate the man who builds his name
On ruins of another's fame." ~~ John Gay

"The policy of the American government is to leave their citizens free, neither restraining nor aiding them in their pursuits." ~~ Thomas Jefferson

"For why should my freedom be judged by another's conscience?" ~~ Paul (1 Corinthians 10:29)

"In a civilized society, all crimes are likely to be sins, but most sins are not and ought not to be treated as crimes. Man's ultimate responsibility is to God alone." ~~ Geoffrey Fisher, Archbishop of Canterbury

"To be prepared for war is one of the most effectual means of preserving peace." ~~ George Washington

Sheldon's Book of Quotes

"The people's government, made for the people, made by the people, and answerable to the people." ~~ Daniel Webster

"In the field of world policy, I would dedicate this nation to the policy of the good neighbor." ~~ Franklin Delano Roosevelt

"The test of our progress is not whether we add more to the abundance of those who have much; it is whether we provide enough for those who have too little." ~~ Franklin Delano Roosevelt

"I admire men of character. And I judge character not by how men deal with their superiors, but mostly how they deal with their subordinates. And that, to me, is where you find out what the character of a man is." ~~ Gen. H. Norman Schwarzkopf

"We must be the great arsenal of democracy." ~~ Franklin Delano Roosevelt

"Speak softly and carry a big stick: you will go far." ~~ Theodore Roosevelt

"We have met the enemy, and they are ours." ~~ Oliver H. Perry

"Freedom of religion; freedom of the press; freedom of person under the protection of the habeas corpus; and trial by juries impartially selected, -These principles form the bright constellation which has gone before us, and guided our steps through an age of revolution and reformation." ~~ Thomas Jefferson

"It is not best to swap horses when crossing a stream." ~~ Abraham Lincoln

"The God who gave us life, gave us liberty at the same time." ~~ Thomas Jefferson - Summary View of the Rights of British America

"I don't make jokes. I just watch the government and report the facts." ~~ Will Rogers

"Nothing is so permanent as a temporary government program." ~~ Milton Friedman

"Politicians are the same all over: they promise to build a bridge even where there is no river." ~~ Nikita Khrushchev (1960)

"The whole aim of practical politics is to keep the populace alarmed ~~ and hence clamorous to be led to safety ~~ by menacing it with an endless series of hobgoblins, all of them imaginary." ~~ H.L. Mencken

"Rebellion to tyrants is obedience to God." ~~ John Bradshaw

"There are just two rules of governance in a free society: Mind your own business. Keep your hands to yourself." ~~ P.J. O'Rourke (1993)

"The human race divides politically into those who want people to be controlled and those who have no such desire." ~~ Robert A. Heinlein

"Just because you do not take an interest in politics doesn't mean politics won't take an interest in you." ~~ Pericles (430 BC)

"The more corrupt the state, the more it legislates." ~~ Tacitus

"There is no virtue in compulsory government charity, and there is no virtue in advocating it. A politician who portrays himself as "caring" and "sensitive" because he wants to expand the government's charitable programs is merely saying that he's willing to try to do good with other people's money. Well, who isn't? And a voter who takes pride in supporting such programs is telling us that he'll do good with his own money ~~ if a gun is held to his head." ~~ P.J. O'Rourke

"The ultimate result of shielding men from the effects of folly is to fill the world with fools." ~~ Herbert Spencer (1891)

"More laws, less justice." ~~ Marcus Tullius Cicero (42 BC)

"No man's life, liberty, or property are safe while the legislature is in session." ~~ Mark Twain (1866)

"The strongest reason for the people to retain the right to bear arms is, as a last resort, to protect themselves against tyranny in government." ~~ Thomas Jefferson

"There is no worse tyranny than to force a man to pay for what he does not want merely because you think it would be good for him." ~~ Robert Heinlein

"Liberty is the only thing you cannot have unless you are willing to give it to others." ~~ William Allen White

Sheldon's Book of Quotes

"The true danger is when Liberty is nibbled away, for expedients." ~~ Edmund Burke (1899)

"I have ever deemed it fundamental for the United States never to take active part in the quarrels of Europe. Their political interests are entirely distinct from ours. Their mutual jealousies, their balance of power, their complicated alliances, their forms and principles of government, are all foreign to us. They are nations of eternal war." ~~ Thomas Jefferson (1823)

"America does not go abroad in search of monsters to destroy. She is the well-wisher to the freedom and independence of all. She well knows that by enlisting under other banners than her own, were they even the banners of foreign independence, she would involve herself beyond the power of extrication in all the wars of interest and intrigue, of individual avarice, envy and ambition, which assume the colors and usurp the standards of freedom." ~~ John Quincy Adams (1821)

"He that would make his own liberty secure must guard even his enemy from oppression." ~~ Thomas Paine (1795)

"Government is the great fiction, through which everybody endeavors to live at the expense of everybody else." ~~ Frederic Bastiat

"Ask not what you can do for your country; ask what your government is doing to you." ~~ Joseph Sobran (1990)

"God grants liberty only to those who love it, and are always ready to guard and defend it." ~~ Daniel Webster (1834)

"The greatest dangers to liberty lurk in insidious encroachment by men of zeal, well-meaning but without understanding." ~~ Justice Louis Brandeis (1928)

"The saddest epitaph which can be carved in memory of a vanished liberty is that it was lost because its possessors failed to stretch forth a saving hand while yet there was time." ~~ Justice George Sutherland (1938)

"The era of resisting big government is never over." ~~ Paul Gigot (1998)

"Not a place upon earth might be so happy as America. Her situation is remote from all the wrangling world, and she has nothing to do but to trade with them." ~~ Thomas Paine (1776)

"Bureaucracy is a giant mechanism operated by pygmies." ~~ Honore de Balzac

"Whoever prefers life to death, happiness to suffering, well-being to misery must defend without compromise private ownership in the means of production." ~~ Ludwig von Mises (1920)

"The triumph of persuasion over force is the sign of a civilized society." ~~ Mark Skousen

"Good intentions will always be pleaded for any assumption of power. The Constitution was made to guard the people against the dangers of good intentions. There are men in all ages who mean to govern well, but they mean to govern. They promise to be good masters, but they mean to be masters." ~~ Daniel Webster

"If angels were to govern men, neither external nor internal controls on government would be necessary. In framing a government that is to be administered by men over men, the great difficulty lies in this: you must first enable the government to control the governed; and in the next place oblige it to control itself." ~~ James Madison

"Let the people think they govern and they will be governed." ~~ William Penn (1693)

"In 1940, teachers were asked what they regarded as the three major problems in American schools. They identified the three major problems as: Littering, noise, and chewing gum. Teachers last year were asked what the three major problems in American schools were, and they defined them as: Rape, assault, and suicide." ~~ William Bennett (1993)

"The threat posed by humans to the natural environment is nothing compared to the threat to humans posed by global environmental policy." ~~ Fred L. Smith (1992)

Sheldon's Book of Quotes

"The great virtue of a free market system is that it does not care what color people are; it does not care what their religion is; it only cares whether they can produce something you want to buy. It is the most effective system we have discovered to enable people who hate one another to deal with one another and help one another." ~~ Milton Friedman

"The spirit of truth and the spirit of freedom ~~ they are the pillars of society." ~~ Henrik Ibsen (1877)

"Government is actually the worst failure of civilized man. There has never been a really good one, and even those that are most tolerable are arbitrary, cruel, grasping, and unintelligent." ~~ H. L. Mencken

"Government cannot make man richer, but it can make him poorer." ~~ Ludwig von Mises

"Sometimes it is said that man cannot be trusted with the government of himself. Can he, then, be trusted with the government of others?" ~~ Thomas Jefferson (1801)

"A wise and frugal government, which shall restrain men from injuring one another, which shall leave them otherwise free to regulate their own pursuits of industry and improvement, and shall not take from the mouth of labor the bread it has earned. This is the sum of good government." ~~ Thomas Jefferson (1801)

"This country is a one-party country. Half of it is called Republican and half is called Democrat. It doesn't make any difference. All the really good ideas belong to the Libertarians." ~~ Hugh Downs (1997)

"Power tends to corrupt, and absolute power corrupts absolutely." ~~ Lord Acton (1887)

"Political power grows out of the barrel of a gun." ~~ Mao Zedong (1938)

"The difference between libertarianism and socialism is that libertarians will tolerate the existence of a socialist community, but socialists can't tolerate a libertarian community." ~~ David D. Boaz (1997)

"We contend that for a nation to try to tax itself into prosperity is like a man standing in a bucket and trying to lift himself up by the handle." ~~ Winston Churchill (1903)

"If you have been voting for politicians who promise to give you goodies at someone else's expense, then you have no right to complain when they take your money and give it to someone else, including themselves." ~~ Thomas Sowell (1992)

"War has all the characteristics of socialism most conservatives hate: Centralized power, state planning, false rationalism, restricted liberties, foolish optimism about intended results, and blindness to unintended secondary results." ~~ Joseph Sobran (1991)

"There never was a good war or a bad peace." ~~ Benjamin Franklin (1773)

"The only thing that saves us from the bureaucracy is inefficiency. An efficient bureaucracy is the greatest threat to liberty." ~~ Eugene McCarthy

"They that can give up essential liberty to obtain a little temporary safety deserve neither liberty nor safety." ~~ Benjamin Franklin

"The government of the United States is not, in any sense, founded on the Christian religion." ~~ George Washington (1796)

"All national institutions of churches, whether Jewish, Christian, or Turkish, appear to me no other than human inventions, set up to terrify and enslave mankind, and monopolize power and profit." ~~ Thomas Paine

"I sincerely believe that banking establishments are more dangerous than standing armies, and that the principle of spending money to be paid by posterity, under the name of funding, is but swindling futurity on a large scale." ~~ Thomas Jefferson

"He that would make his own liberty secure must guard even his enemy from oppression; for if he violates this duty he establishes a precedent that will reach to himself." ~~ Thomas Paine

Sheldon's Book of Quotes

"My indiscreet disputations about religion began to make me pointed at with horror by good people as an infidel or atheist" ~~ Benjamin Franklin - Autobiography

"I admire men of character. And I judge character not by how men deal with their superiors, but mostly how they deal with their subordinates. And that, to me, is where you find out what the character of a man is." ~~ Gen. H. Norman Schwarzkopf, Commander of Forces in the Persian Gulf, in a television interview with David Frost

"The power of the Executive to cast a man into prison without formulating any charge, and particularly to deny him the judgment of his peers, is in the highest degree odious and is the foundation of all totalitarian government whether Nazi or Communist." ~~ Winston Churchill, November 21, 1943

"That we are to stand by the president, right or wrong is not only unpatriotic and servile, but is morally treasonable to the American public." ~~ Theodore Roosevelt

"Life is not a journey to the grave with the intention of arriving safely in one pretty and well preserved piece, but to skid across the finish line broadside, thoroughly used up, worn out, leaking oil and shouting, 'GERONIMO!'" ~~ Anonymous

"It is the duty of every citizen according to his best capacities to give validity to his convictions in political affairs." ~~ Albert Einstein, 'Treasury for the Free World,' 1946

"Crime does not pay ... as well as politics." ~~ Alfred E. Newman

"Politics, n. Strife of interests masquerading as a contest of principles." ~~ Ambrose Bierce, The Devil's Dictionary

"Man is by nature a political animal." ~~ Aristotle

"I have come to the conclusion that politics are too serious a matter to be left to the politicians." ~~ Charles De Gaulle

"Politics is made up largely of irrelevancies." ~~ Dalton Camp

"Politics is the art of looking for trouble, finding it whether it exists or not, diagnosing it incorrectly, and applying the wrong remedy." ~~ Ernest Benn

"Being in politics is like being a football coach. You have to be smart enough to understand the game, and dumb enough to think it's important." ~~ Eugene McCarthy

"When the political columnists say 'Every thinking man' they mean themselves, and when candidates appeal to 'Every intelligent voter' they mean everybody who is going to vote for them." ~~ Franklin P. Adams

"The problem with political jokes is they get elected." ~~ Henry Cate VII

"Nothing is so admirable in politics as a short memory." ~~ John Kenneth Galbraith

"Politics is not the art of the possible. It consists in choosing between the disastrous and the unpalatable." ~~ John Kenneth Galbraith

"The word 'politics' is derived from the word 'poly', meaning 'many', and the word 'ticks', meaning 'blood sucking parasites.'" ~~ Larry Hardiman

"Politics is the skilled use of blunt objects." ~~ Lester B. Pearson

"Politics is war without bloodshed while war is politics with bloodshed." ~~ Mao Tse-Tung

"Nothing can so alienate a voter from the political system as backing a winning candidate." ~~ Mark B. Cohen

"Politics is the art of the possible." ~~ Otto Von Bismarck

Sheldon's Book of Quotes

"Politics is the art of preventing people from taking part in affairs which properly concern them." ~~ Paul Valery

"In politics you must always keep running with the pack. The moment that you falter and they sense that you are injured, the rest will turn on you like wolves." ~~ R. A. Butler

"Politics is perhaps the only profession for which no preparation is thought necessary." ~~ Robert Louis Stevenson

"Politics is not a bad profession. If you succeed there are many rewards, if you disgrace yourself you can always write a book." ~~ Ronald Reagan

"Politics is supposed to be the second oldest profession. I have come to realize that it bears a very close resemblance to the first." ~~ Ronald Reagan

"Politics is applesauce." ~~ Will Rogers

"The more you read and observe about this Politics thing, you got to admit that each party is worse than the other. The one that's out always looks the best." ~~ Will Rogers

"He who would travel happily must travel light." ~~ Antoine de Saint-Exupery

"Thanks to the Interstate Highway System, it is now possible to travel from coast to coast without seeing anything." ~~ Charles Kuralt

"When you travel, remember that a foreign country is not designed to make you comfortable. It is designed to make its own people comfortable." ~~ Clifton Fadiman

"The true traveler is he who goes on foot, and even then, he sits down a lot of the time." ~~ Colette

"A man travels the world over in search of what he needs and returns home to find it." ~~ George Moore

"Before he sets out, the traveler must possess fixed interests and facilities to be served by travel." ~~ George Santayana

"The saying 'Getting there is half the fun' became obsolete with the advent of commercial airlines." ~~ Henry J. Tillman

"Certainly, travel is more than the seeing of sights; it is a change that goes on, deep and permanent, in the ideas of living." ~~ Miriam Beard

"Travel is only glamorous in retrospect." ~~ Paul Theroux

"Two roads diverged in a wood, and I--
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference." ~~ Robert Frost

"Everywhere I go I find a poet has been there before me." ~~ Sigmund Freud

"Travel only with thy equals or thy betters; if there are none, travel alone." ~~ The Dhammapada

"Every mile is two in winter." ~~ George Herbert

"One kind word can warm three winter months." ~~ Japanese proverb

"The tendinous part of the mind, so to speak, is more developed in winter; the fleshy, in summer. I should say winter had given the bone and sinew to literature, summer the tissues and the blood." ~~ John Burroughs

"When you live in Texas, every single time you see snow it's magical." ~~ Pamela Ribon, Why Girls Are Weird

"Winter is on my head, but eternal spring is in my heart." ~~ Victor Hugo

"Winter lies too long in country towns; hangs on until it is stale and shabby, old and sullen." ~~ Willa Cather, My Antonia

"And for the season it was winter, and they that know the winters of that country know them to be sharp and violent, and subject to cruel and fierce storms." ~~ William Bradford, Of Plymouth Plantation

"O Winter! ruler of the inverted year, . . . I crown thee king of intimate delights, Fireside enjoyments, home-born happiness, And all the comforts that the lowly roof Of undisturb'd Retirement, and the hours Of long uninterrupted evening, know." ~~ William Cowper

"Blow, blow, thou winter wind
Thou art not so unkind,
As man's ingratitude." ~~ William Shakespeare

"Wisdom doesn't automatically come with old age. Nothing does - except wrinkles. It's true, some wines improve with age. But only if the grapes were good in the first place." ~~ Abigail Van Buren

"The whole problem with the world is that fools and fanatics are always so certain of themselves, but wiser people so full of doubts." ~~ Bertrand Russell

"Wisdom is what's left after we've run out of personal opinions." ~~ Cullen Hightower

"One's first step in wisdom is to question everything - and one's last is to come to terms with everything." ~~ Georg Christoph Lichtenberg

"The older I grow the more I distrust the familiar doctrine that age brings wisdom." ~~ H. L. Mencken

"Force without wisdom falls of its own weight." ~~ Horace

"Science is organized knowledge. Wisdom is organized life." ~~ Immanuel Kant

"Men are wise in proportion, not to their experience, but to their capacity for experience." ~~ James Boswell

"It is unwise to be too sure of one's own wisdom. It is healthy to be reminded that the strongest might weaken and the wisest might err." ~~ Mahatma Gandhi

Sheldon's Book of Quotes

"We don't receive wisdom; we must discover it for ourselves after a journey that no one can take for us or spare us." ~~ Marcel Proust

"To acquire knowledge, one must study; but to acquire wisdom, one must observe." ~~ Marilyn vos Savant

"It is not white hair that engenders wisdom." ~~ Menander

"Those who wish to appear wise among fools, among the wise seem foolish." ~~ Quintilian, De Institutione Oratoria

"War is much too serious a matter to be entrusted to the military." ~~ Georges Clemenceau

"The outcome of the war is in our hands; the outcome of words is in the council." ~~ Homer, The Iliad

"You can no more win a war than you can win an earthquake." ~~ Jeannette Rankin

"War may sometimes be a necessary evil. But no matter how necessary, it is always an evil, never a good. We will not learn how to live together in peace by killing each other's children." ~~ Jimmy Carter

"War is an ugly thing, but not the ugliest of things. The decayed and degraded state of moral and patriotic feeling which thinks that nothing is worth war is much worse. The person who has nothing for which he is willing to fight, nothing which is more important than his own personal safety, is a miserable creature and has no chance of being free unless made and kept so by the exertions of better men than himself." ~~ John Stuart Mill

"War is not its own end, except in some catastrophic slide into absolute damnation. It's peace that's wanted. Some better peace than the one you started with." ~~ Lois McMaster Bujold

"What difference does it make to the dead, the orphans and the homeless, whether the mad destruction is wrought under the name of totalitarianism or the holy name of liberty or democracy?" ~~ Mahatma Gandhi

"It is well that war is so terrible, or we should grow too fond of it." ~~ Robert E. Lee

"Never, never, never believe any war will be smooth and easy, or that anyone who embarks on the strange voyage can measure the tides and hurricanes he will encounter. The statesman who yields to war fever must realize that once the signal is given, he is no longer the master of policy but the slave of unforeseeable and uncontrollable events." ~~ Sir Winston Churchill

"One day President Roosevelt told me that he was asking publicly for suggestions about what the war should be called. I said at once 'The Unnecessary War'." ~~ Sir Winston Churchill

"The only winner in the War of 1812 was Tchaikovsky." ~~ Solomon Short

"The art of war is simple enough. Find out where your enemy is. Get at him as soon as you can. Strike him as hard as you can, and keep moving." ~~ Ulysses S. Grant

"Wars teach us not to love our enemies, but to hate our allies." ~~ W. L. George

"The idea of all-out nuclear war is unsettling." ~~ Walter Goodman

"Take the diplomacy out of war and the thing would fall flat in a week." ~~ Will Rogers

"You can't say that civilization don't advance, however, for in every war they kill you in a new way." ~~ Will Rogers

"When I was a boy I was told that anybody could become President. Now I'm beginning to believe it." ~~ Clarence Darrow (1857 - 1938)

"I have been thinking that I would make a proposition to my Republican friends... that if they will stop telling lies about the Democrats, we will stop telling the truth about them." ~~ Adlai E. Stevenson Jr. (1900 - 1965), Speech during 1952 Presidential Campaign

"In America any boy may become President and I suppose it's just one of the risks he takes." ~~ Adlai E. Stevenson Jr. (1900 - 1965), Speech in Indianapolis, 26 Sept. 1952

"Democracy means that anyone can grow up to be president, and anyone who doesn't grow up can be vice president." ~~ Johnny Carson (1925 - 2005)

"We need a president who's fluent in at least one language." ~~ Buck Henry

"Any American who is prepared to run for president should automatically, by definition, be disqualified from ever doing so." ~~ Gore Vidal

"CNN is one of the participants in the war. I have a fantasy where Ted Turner is elected president but refuses because he doesn't want to give up power." ~~ Arthur C. Clarke

Sheldon's Book of Quotes

"Half of the American people have never read a newspaper. Half never voted for President. One hopes it is the same half." ~~ Gore Vidal

"Men of shady character frequently try to cover their misconduct by fervent protestations of love of country." ~~ Theodore Roosevelt

"We shall never make our republic what it should be until as a people we thoroughly understand and put in practice the doctrine that success is abhorrent if attained by the sacrifice of the fundamental principles of morality. The successful man, whether in business or in politics, who has risen by conscienceless swindling of his neighbors, by deceit and chicanery, by unscrupulous boldness and unscrupulous cunning, stands toward society as a dangerous wild beast." ~~ Theodore Roosevelt

"If we stand idly by, if we seek merely swollen, slothful ease and ignoble peace, if we shrink from the hard contests where men must win at hazard of their lives and at the risk of all they hold dear, then the bolder and stronger peoples will pass us by, and will win for themselves the domination of the world." ~~ Theodore Roosevelt

"You're not to be so blind with patriotism that you can't face reality. Wrong is wrong, no matter who does it or says it." ~~ Malcolm X

"My country, right or wrong," is a thing that no patriot would think of saying except in a desperate case. It is like saying, "My mother, drunk or sober." ~~ G. K. Chesterton

"When a whole nation is roaring Patriotism at the top of its voice, I am fain to explore the cleanness of its hands and purity of its heart." ~~ Ralph Waldo Emerson

"You'll never have a quiet world till you knock the patriotism out of the human race." ~~ George Bernard Shaw

"Patriotism having become one of our topicks, Johnson suddenly uttered, in a strong determined tone, an apophthegm, at which many will start: "Patriotism is the last refuge of a scoundrel." But let it be considered that he did not mean a real and generous love of our country, but that pretended patriotism which so many, in all ages and countries, have made a cloak of self- interest." ~~ Samuel Johnson

"Patriotism is the willingness to kill and be killed for trivial reasons." ~~ Bertrand Russell

"I know [patriotism] exists, and I know it has done much in the present contest. But a great and lasting war can never be supported on this principle alone. It must be aided by a prospect of interest, or some reward." ~~ George Washington

"Patriotism is a pernicious, psychopathic form of idiocy." ~~ George Bernard Shaw

"...a man may be a patriot without risking his own life or sacrificing his health. There are plenty of lives less valuable." ~~ James Mellon, who paid $300 for a civil war Union army deferment

"Speculations and loans in foreign fields are likely to bring us into war... The war-for-profit group has counterfeited patriotism." ~~ Charles Lindberg Sr.

Sheldon's Book of Quotes

"No, I don't know that atheists should be considered as citizens, nor should they be considered patriots. This is one nation under God."
~~ President George Bush, to Robert Sherman of American Atheist Press, at the Chicago airport while announcing federal disaster relief for Illinois

"Dachshunds are ideal dogs for small children, as they have already been stretched and pulled to such a length that the child cannot do much harm one way or the other," ~ Robert Benchley

"Ignorance never settles a question. " ~~ Benjamin Disraeli

"The magic of first love is our ignorance that it can ever end. " ~~ Benjamin Disraeli

"It is knowledge that influences and equalizes the social condition of man; that gives to all, however different their political position, passions which are in common, and enjoyments which are universal. " ~~ Benjamin Disraeli

"The more extensive a man's knowledge of what has been done, the greater will be his power of knowing what to do. " ~~ Benjamin Disraeli

"When we would prepare the mind by a forcible appeal, an opening quotation is a symphony prelude on the chords those tones we are about to harmonize. " ~~ Benjamin Disraeli

"Seeing much, suffering much, and studying much, are the three pillars of learning. " ~~ Benjamin Disraeli

War is just a racket. A racket is best described, I believe, as something that is not what it seems to the majority of people. Only a small inside group knows what it is about. It is conducted for the benefit of the very few at the expense of the masses.

I believe in adequate defense at the coastline and nothing else. If a nation comes over here to fight, then we'll fight. The trouble with America is that when the dollar only earns 6 percent over here, then it gets restless and goes overseas to get 100 percent. Then the flag follows the dollar and the soldiers follow the flag.

I wouldn't go to war again as I have done to protect some lousy investment of the bankers. There are only two things we should fight for. One is the defense of our homes and the other is the Bill of Rights. War for any other reason is simply a racket.

There isn't a trick in the racketeering bag that the military gang is blind to. It has its "finger men" to point out enemies, its "muscle men" to destroy enemies, its "brain men" to plan war preparations, and a "Big Boss" Super-Nationalistic-Capitalism.

It may seem odd for me, a military man to adopt such a comparison. Truthfulness compels me to. I spent thirty- three years and four months in active military service as a member of this country's most agile military force, the Marine Corps. I served in all commissioned ranks from Second Lieutenant to Major-General. And during that period, I spent most of my time being a high class muscle- man for Big Business, for Wall Street and for the Bankers. In short, I was a racketeer, a gangster for capitalism.

I suspected I was just part of a racket at the time. Now I am sure of it. Like all the members of the military profession, I never had a thought of my own until I left the service. My mental faculties remained in suspended animation while I obeyed the orders of higher-ups. This is typical with everyone in the military service.

I helped make Mexico, especially Tampico, safe for American oil interests in 1914. I helped make Haiti and Cuba a decent place for the National City Bank boys to collect revenues in. I helped in the raping of half a dozen Central American republics for the benefits of Wall Street. The record of racketeering is long. I helped purify Nicaragua for the international banking house of Brown Brothers in 1909-1912. I brought light to the Dominican Republic for American sugar interests in 1916. In China I helped to see to it that Standard Oil went its way unmolested.

During those years, I had, as the boys in the back room would say, a swell racket. Looking back on it, I feel that I could have given Al Capone a few hints. The best he could do was to operate his racket in three districts. I operated on three continents
